OVERTON, William, son of Robert, was b. 1638 in London m. Elizabeth Waters, dau. of Samuel and Ann Waters of London. His marriage is proved by the LWT of Ann Waters of the Parish of St. Sepulchre, London, widow, dated 9/29/1697, probated 7/1700 by her son, Thomas Waters. "I give unto my daughter, Elizabeth Overton, now in Virginia, the sum of ten shillings and to my son-in-law, William Overton, her husband, ten shillings...." Family tradition says that William Overton came to Va. in search of his father ca 1669 and failing to locate him, remained in Hanover Co., Va., where, in 1670 he brought over his fiancée, Elizabeth Waters. They were married onboard the ship 11/24/1670, it having cost him 50 pds. of tobacco for her passage from England to America. The Virginia Land Books contain records of a deed for 4600 acres on the SS of Pamunky River on Falling Creek 4/23/1681 to William Overton for transporting 92 persons to the colony. Another deed to William Overton in 1690 was for additional land in St. Peter's Parish. William was b. 12/3/1638 in England m. 11/24/1670 at Yorktown, Va. Elizabeth Waters. They had 6 children: Mary Elizabeth b. 6/28/1673 m. Robert Anderson II who d. 1716; William b. 8/14/1675 d. 6/18/1759 m. Peggy Garland; Temperance 3/2/1679-2/19/1716, buried at "Cedar Hill" in Hanover Co., Va. m. William Harris; Samuel b. 8/14/1685 d. bef 1725, lived in Hanover Co., Va. m. Miss Carr; Capt. James b. 8/14/1688 d. 6/16/1748 m. Elizabeth Garland (Widow Truhart) 1690-1739; Barbara b. 2/5/1690 d. 10/30/1766 m. 1706 John or James Winston, residents of Hanover Co., Va. Barbara Winston's LWT dtd 10/6/1754 mentions 6 children. The father, Robert Overton's marriage is recorded "Robert Overton, Gentleman, of Easington, in Holderness, County York, bachelor, aged 23, and Anne Gardiner, of Stratford, Bow, Middlesex, spinster, 16, daughter of Jeremey Gardiner of same, gentleman, consents---at Little Street Bartholomew, London June 27, 1632." Robert Overton, b. in 1609, d. after 1679 erected a tablet in honor of his parents in the church in 1650, located near the place where Overton Hall, his ancestral home, stood until about 1887. Overton Hall was continuously occupied by members of his family for many generations. He is said to have been of the same family as the famous Bishop William Overton of Coventry and Litchfield, England. Historical Southern Families by Boddie, Vol. 6, p. 126 recalls Robert Overton as a staunch defender of the rights of the people in England, his correspondence to be found among the "Thurloe Papers". Also, see The Dictionary of National Biography for an interesting account of his career as a lawyer and political prisoner. Robert Overton, was a son of John Overton and his wife, Joan, of Yorkshire.

PRESTON, John "first of the family who came to America was born in Ireland in the City of Londonderry. His father and three uncles were Englishmen who served under King William and aided in the defense of that city when besieged by Roman Catholics commanded by King James in 1689. He was a Protestant....He married Elizabeth Patton, a sister of Colonel James Patton of Donnegal and removed with him from Ireland to the State of Virginia in the year of 1740. Colonel Patton had for some years commanded a Merchant ship and was a man of property, enterprise and influence. He obtained an order of Council from the Governor of Virginia under which he appropriated to himself and associates 120,000 acres of the best lands lying above the Blue Ridge in that State, several valuable tracts of which fell to the share of his descendants. He was killed by indians at Smithfield in the year 1753...John Preston's first residence in Virginia was at Spring Hill in Augusta County, but about the year of 1743 he purchased and with his family settled upon a tract of land adjoining Staunton on the north side of that town where he died shortly after and was buried at Tinkling Spring Meeting House, leaving his widow and five children. Mrs. Preston...continued to reside on the plantation...until her children were all educated and married when she removed to Smithfield, the seat of her son, Colonel William Preston, where, in 1776, she died, age 76.
