WILLIAMS, Lewis had a boundary dispute in 1707, being the owner of land on the Meherrin River, since 1679. It is obvious from the disputes that Lewis Williams was unable to inhabit his plantation at Meherrin (Northampton Co., N. C.) because of indian problems and boundary disputes. However, his son, William Williams, was definitely living on this plantation in 1710 when the disputes mention his house. Lewis Williams had two orphan children, William and an unnamed daughter. 6/16/1679, Surry Co., Va., Robert Ruffin declared that at the house of Lewis Williams of Lawnes Creek Parish, late decd, heard Mrs. Williams. She said her husband before he died gave his son to William Newsum and his girls to Sion Hill, and his wife and dau-in-law named Mary to Mr. Thompson and the others of his daus-in-law to the disposing of his wife. The wife died and the child went to Mrs. Edwards. (Surry Co., Va. Estates). Isle of Wight Co., Va. Deed Book I, John Giles and Philante, his wife, sell to Lewis Williams of North Carolina for 1500 pds of tobacco, 500 acres being in North Carolina on the Chowanoke River, being part of a patent granted by William Berkeley to Thomas Woodward, Sr. and Thomas Woodward, Jr., orig. patent dtd 9/23/1663. Deed dated 4/9/1701.

WILLIAMS, Robert, Rev. "was the fourth pastor of this old church. He was born, it is said, in Northampton, N. C., in 1717, and came early to Pee Dee, and entered the minstry in 1752 and died in 1788. In a sermon occasioned by his death, Rev. Mr. Pugh said of him: "He was kind to the poor, and remarkably so to the afflicted; a man of excellent natural endowments, and a minster who preached the Gospel to the edification and comfort of souls, as many have testified to me; and to crown all, a sincere Christian." He was the grandfather of General David R. Williams, a member of Congress and Governor of the State. He, too, is represented in several of the best families in the country at the present day."
