The Jason Louin Robinson (1855-1938) Family

Jason Louin Robinson was the son of John A. Robinson and Lucinda Robinson. He was born at Murphy, North Carolina, in 1855. He moved to Spring Place at an early age and was elected to serve as the sheriff of the county from January 1, 1896 to December 1900. After this he was in the mercantile business for many years and retired in 1931. He was a member of Spring Place Methodist Church and the Masonic fraternity.

He was married to Sallie Fincher. They had four children, William Bedford Robinson, Mamie Robinson Groves, Anderson Robinson and John Winston Robinson. After the death of Sallie Fincher Robinson, he married Nora Townsend of Tilton. They had two daughters, Mattie Lou Robinson Wright and Will Frances Robinson Rogers. A number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren live in Dalton and Atlanta. Mrs. Herbert (Will Frances Robinson) Rogers of Dalton, Georgia, is the only living member of the Jason Louin Robinson family.

The J.P. Robison Family

Joseph Pickens (J.P.) Robison, farmer and carpenter, was born in 1916 and died in 1984. He was the son of Joseph (Joe) Robison (1893-1974) and Eddaline Elizabeth (Eddie) Green b. 1895. He is buried in Robinson-Kilgore Cemetery.
J.P.'s maternal grandfather was Pickens (Pick) L. Green (1853-1936) who married Margie Bailey. Pickens was the son of Jacob Green (1812-1889) and Eddaline Johnson. J.P.'s paternal grandfather was Dolfus (Doc) Eugene Robison who left Murray County around 1907.

J.P. married Cora Lee Brock, the daughter of Jesse and Birtie Brock of Whitfield County. Cora Lee has two brothers, John and Robert Brock, and
