

ROSTER OF MEN IN THE CHEROKEE REMOVAL OF 1838 (TRAIL OF TEARS)

Mustered into service April 29, 1838, at Asheville were volunteer members of Captain James W. Killian's Company of local militia from Buncombe, Henderson and what is now Transylvania County.

Officers

James W. Killian, Captain
Thomas P. Miller, First Lieutenant
Thomas D. Clayton, Second Lieutenant
Eliazer Patton, Ensign
James Erwin, Sergeant
Joseph King, Sergeant
Joseph J. Patten, Third Sergeant

John W. Mackay, Fourth Sergeant
Robert Johnson, Corporal
Benjamin Adkins, Second Corporal
Jackson Shipman, Third Corporal
John I. Mackay, Fourth Corporal
James M. Fletcher, Musician
Abner Champion, Musician

Privates

Alexander, Josiah
Allen, Griffin
Allen, Robert W.
Allison, Samuel
Anderson, Levi
Beck, Alexander
Berrong, Henry
Bryson, James W.
Caron, James
Champion, Hezekiah
Clayton, George
Clayton, James F.
Cook, Thomas B.
Crane, James
Dunn, Simon
Erwin, Eli B.
Fortune, Hiram
Framell, Jesse
Franklin, James
Galloway, John C.
Galloway, Simon R.

Galloway, Thomas H.
Galloway, William I.
Garron, Joseph
Glazner, Simon B.
Hamblin, John R.
Hamilton, William O.
Hefner, Anthony
Hefner, Peter
Johnson, William I.
Hood, James M.
Kitchens, John
Legon, Joseph A.
Loftis, Reuben
Lyday, Adam
Lyday, James W.
Lyons, James C.
Mackay, William
McCarson, David
McKay, John I.
McKay, John W.
McKay, William

Moore, William H.
Morgan, Jordan
Morgan, Solomon
Murray, William P.
Nicholson, Leander
Orr, Farmer
Orr, William H.
Owens, James
Paxton, Charles M.
Phillips, Philip
Setten, Ambrose
Shepherd, Eli
Shepherd, Jesse
Sprinkle, Stephen
Stepp, James
Stewart, Thermenter
Summey, John
Swainey, James
Swaringame, Lemuel
Wilkinson, Isaac
Wooden, William M.