

When he arrives at the age of twenty one years old.

In witness and testimony I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the day of in the year of Our Lord and Saviour Eighteen Hundred and Twenty five.

Signed Sealed and acknowledged in presence of us.

The last will and Testament of William Rolown was offered for probate John Orr being duly sworn made oath that he was at the time the day after the deceased and was called upon as a friend of the deceased and his family to examine amongst his valuable papers and effects to see if there was any last will and Testament, the paper writing was offered as the last will and Testament of William Rolown was found in his desk amongst his most valuable papers and the name of William Rolown and every part thereof is in the hand writing of the said William Rolown. William Rolown and James Smith Esquires being duly sworn made oath that the will as offered for probate was all and every part thereof together with his name is in the hand writing of William Rolown.

Ordered that it be admitted to probate and recorded according to Law.

Witness, Alexander McDowell, Clerk.

In the Name of God "Amen"

I, James McDugald being of perfect memory blessed be God do this the fourth day of October one thousand Eight Hundred and twenty five do make and publish this my last will and Testament in manner following that is to say.

First I give to my Soul to God who gave it and my to the Lord to be buried at the discretion of my Executors.

Secondly I give and bequeath unto my beloved Grandson John Orr McDugald one Cow two years old and unto Call McDugald two Cows and one two year old third unto James McDugald and my daughter Catherine Campbell my third part of three head of horses now in the possession of Duncan Campbell her husband and unto his daughter Mary Ann Campbell one flat wheel and one bed and furniture unto Emily McDugald one chest to Call McDugald and unto my dear beloved Son Hugh McDugald one note of Bank on Duncan Campbell for fifty one dollars and another note of Bank on Duncan Campbell for ten dollars and one note on Hugh McDugald for twenty eight dollars and eight pence and one judgment on the estate of Alexander J. McKay to Hugh McDugald - I also I hereby make and ordain my beloved Son Hugh McDugald Executor to this my last will and Testament.

In witness whereof I the said James McDugald have to this my last will and Testament set my hand and seal day and date above written. Signed Sealed published and declared by the said James McDugald the Testator as his last will and Testament in presence of us who were present at the time of signing and sealing thereof.

David Thomas
Wm. McKinnon

James McDugald, Son
James McDugald, Clerk