In the Superior Court.
In the matter of the last will of F. H. Cumming.
It appearing to the Court by the oath and examination of B. C. Lyon and L. M. Smith, the subscribing witnesses thereto, that the paper writing propounded by the executor therein named, as the last will and testament of F. H. Cumming and that the same was duly executed by said F. H. Cumming in the presence of said witnesses and that at the time of signing the same the said F. H. Cumming was of sound mind, it is thereupon adjudged that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of the said F. H. Cumming, and the executor therein named qualify as such.
This the 13th day of June 1890.
