I James Bradley of the County of Bladen and State of North Carolina do make ordain and declare this instrument of writing which is written with my own hand to be my last Will and Testament revoking all others.

I am pining. All my just debts are to be paid, paid and my estate to be divided in the manner and form following

Item To my beloved Wife Anna Bradley I give and bequeath the use profit and benefit of my whole estate both Real and Personal for the term of her natural life reserving to her disposal three negroes, namely, Chas and Miley with Charley Miley, Son whom was two years old the 2^d instant with all the Household Furniture as well as that of the Kitchen Furniture of every description

Item I will and devise all the land I have in hold and stock of every kind that I may be possessed of at my death with all the plantation tools and implements belonging to the said mill to John Bradley Corran his heirs and assigns forever except herein after mentioned as a token of my return.

Item I will and devise to William James Corran, my half of the land sold by Isaac Jones to Bradley and Corran which land is now held by John Corran Senr and that on which he lives to him his heirs forever, also one hundred and fifty acres of land patented by me beginning at his Father or grand Father's corner of the East side of North West River, which will be by the records in the Registers office. Be the said William James Corran paying the aforesaid John Bradley Corran four hundred dollars at his coming to the age of maturity as a token of my return.

Item It is my will that Jane Draugham daughter of Robert Draugham of Cumberland County be paid by my Executors two hundred and fifty dollars as soon as convenient to them or the situation of my estate will admit of as a token of my return.

RECORD OF WILLS.

Item I give to James Draugham two hundred and fifty dollars to be paid as above directed to him his heirs Jane Draugham

Item I give to Joshua Bells and old friends one hundred dollars to him and his heirs.

Item In the office of the Court of Probate held for the County of Halifax in the State of Virginia this week he found a Bill of Sale from my Father of the said County to me for sundry negroes sold to me

It is my desire that these negroes with their issue be equally divided between my loving Brothers and Sisters and their representatives agreeable to the Laws of North Carolina to them and their heirs forever.

Item It is my desire that all my moving apparel be given to John Bradley Corran with all my Books and Guns except one marked with W. J. Corran which I have accented for William James Corran as I have seen much disputation as to the legal form of Wills amongst Legates and as at now my wish it should not be the case in this case that should I and my wife Anna Bradley both depart this life before John Bradley Corran to the years of maturity it is my desire that all the negroes be kept together and worked in my plantation as they now are in my life time under the direction of my Executors until he the said John B. Corran shall come to the years of maturity which profit will be applied to his use only.

Item The rest of my Estate real and Personal I will and devise unto William James Corran, John Bradley Corran and Elizabeth Corran to be equally divided amongst them or survivors of them reserving to John Bradley Corran any one of the negroes that he should make choice of for his own use free of any division and in case the aforesaid William James Corran, John Bradley Corran and Elizabeth Corran should die this life before they have issue lawfully begotten and in that case it is my desire that the whole of my estate both Real and Personal be equally divided between the children of John Bradley Corran.

RECORD OF WILLS.
