Bladen County

Probate of Will

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of R. W. Smith, deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned Judge of Probate for Bladen county by Ann Jane Smith the executrix therein named and the due execution thereof by the said R. W. Smith by the oath and examination of R. G. Davis and W. H. Culbreth who being duly sworn depose and say and each for himself depose and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of R. W. Smith, that the said R. W. Smith in presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the fifteenth day of April 1882.

And this deponent further saith that the said R. W. Smith the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did then upon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator.

And the deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said R. W. Smith was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will and not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent.

And further these deponents say not.
