

Co. 347

I, Allen Clemmons of the County of Brunswick, Southport, State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory declare this to be my last will and testament.

I give and devise to my daughter, Annie Clemmons, the house and one-half of the lot of ground situated on Brown St. between Howe and Plett Streets in said County, Southport, to have and to hold the premises above described to the said Annie Clemmons forever. 33X165.

I also give and devise to my son John Clemmons the other half of the half lot of ground, 33X165, together with all the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining: To have and to hold the premises above described to the said John Clemmons, forever.

In witness whereof, I, Allen Clemmons have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 2nd day of Jan. in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

Allen Clemmons. Subscribed by the Testator in presence of each of us and at the same time declared by him to be his last will and testament.

Witness our hands this 2nd day of Jan. A. D. 1920.

North Carolina,
Brunswick County.
In the Matter of the Will of Allen Clemmons, Deceased,
The paper writing hereto attached and purporting to be the last will and testament of Allen Clemmons, deceased, is exhibited before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick County, North Carolina, by Annie Clemmons one of devise therein named, and thereupon the following proof thereof is taken by the oath and examination of Julius Wilson and J. P. Evans, the subscribing witnesses thereto, as follows: North Carolina, Brunswick County.

Julius Wilson and J. P. Evans, being duly sworn, depose and say, and each for himself deposes and says, that he is a subscribing witness to the said paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Allen Clemmons, and that he saw him execute (or heard him acknowledge the execution of) the writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence and at the request of said Allen Clemmons, deceased, and that at the time of its execution (or at the time its execution was acknowledged) said Allen Clemmons was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.

Julius Wilson
J. P. Evans

Severally subscribed and sworn to before me, this 14th day of Aug. 1922:

A. S. McClinton
Clerk Superior Court,
Brunswick County

And thereupon it is considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of Allen Clemmons, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and the affidavits, be read and filed this 14th day of Aug. 1922.
