NORTH CAROLINA,
BRUNSWICK COUNTY.

We, E. H. Cranmer, and Mary E. Cranmer, his wife, of the County and State aforesaid, each being of sound and disposing mind, but considering the uncertainty of our earthly existence, do make ordain, declare and publish, this our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. The reason the said Mary E. Cranmer, who has no separate estate, joins in this last will and testament, is that her husband, and herself own several pieces or parcels of real estate by the entireties, and it is the steadfast intention and fixed will of the said E. H. Cranmer, that the entire estate, both real and personal shall be used, if necessary, for the maintenance and support of his wife, Mary E. Cranmer, and Physically afflicted son Paul Morris Cranmer. And the said Mary E. Cranmer, covenants, promises and agrees to and with the said E. H. Cranmer, and the said Paul Morris Cranmer, for good and sufficient consideration to her in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby fully acknowledged and confessed, that she will do and perform any act or acts necessary or proper, to make legally effective the true intent and meaning of this last will and testament, that is to say: the entire estate, both real and personal, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the support and maintenance of Mary E. Cranmer and our badly handicapped, son Paul Morris Cranmer.

Item One. We give, devise, and bequeath to our beloved son JAMES FEARCE CRANMER, Trustee, for the sole and separate use, benefit and behoof of Mary E. Cranmer and Paul Morris Cranmer, all our estate, both real and personal wheresoever situate, to hold, manage, control invest and reinvest. No real estate shall be encumbered or sold unless it be necessary to provide support and maintenance for Mary E. Cranmer Paul Morris Cranmer, and act in that event until the Judge of the Superior Court residing in this District, or the Judge regularly presiding in the District, approves the encumbrance or sale, in writing. The Judge is to be shown this paragraph of this will, and he is solemnly requested not to give his approval of any sale or encumbrance, as a matter of form, but to carefully investigate the condition and circumstances, before approving. It will be sufficient compliance if said Judge will write the word "approved" and his signature on any incumbrance or deed. During the life of Mary E. Cranmer, all payments are to be made exclusively to her, as she will look after our son, Paul Morris Cranmer.

Item Two. Upon the death of Mary E. Cranmer, we give, devise and bequeath to our beloved son JAMES FEARCE CRANMER, the family residence and the lot upon which it is situate, fronting on Moore Street, Southport, N. C. and the one half lot adjoining it on the East, to him and his heirs, forever, in fee.

Item Three. Upon the falling in of this Trust, by the death of Mary E. Cranmer and Paul Morris Cranmer, all of the estate, both real and personal, then remaining, shall be then divided, share and share alike among our beloved children: To ALICE CRANMER ARRINGTON, one share, to her and her heirs, in fee; To JAMES FEARCE CRANMER, one share of the personal estate, he having, in this instrument, been given real estate; To MARY CRANMER MINTZ, one share, to her and her heirs, in fee; To NELLIE G. CRANMER, widow of our late son, Edward H. Cranmer, Jr., one share. Provided, she is living and unmarried at the time of the falling in of the Trust.

Item Four. The Trustee is required to keep accurate and true account of all his acts and doings under this trust, and to furnish to his mother, Mary E. Cranmer, a true copy of his Annual Account to the Court.

Item Five. We think there is sufficient property, and insurance to maintain and support Paul Morris Cranmer and Mary E. Cranmer, during their lives, and that there will be some left, to divide among our children, if the Trustee and all conour and are very careful. All the life insurance is payable to Mary E. Cranmer, in monthly payments, beginning at E. H. Cranmer's death and continuing for ten years thereafter. In event of her death, the payments will be made to Paul Morris Cranmer, until the ten years expire. The Trustee will keep in mind the insurance and rents, and other income from the Estate. With care and good management it may not be necessary to impair the estate for several years. The words "invest" and "reinvest" shall not be construed to mean lending money on notes and mortgages or land. Any idle funds of the estate may only be invested in U. S. Bonds or State of North Carolina Bonds. The Trustee must be firm, take no advice or persuasion contrary to the true intent and meaning of this instrument: to provide maintenance and support for his
