No. 26

IN THE NAME OF GOD, Amen! I, Willie Braddy, of the county of Brunswick and State of North Carolina, though weak in body, yet of sound mind & memory, blessed be God, for the enjoyment of the same, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner & form following. To wit:

First - I give & bequeath unto my son, Amos Braddy, the piece parcel of land which I purchased of Mrs. Mary Ann Howe located on the East side of Livingston Creek and well known as the Lower part of the broad water tract to him & his heirs for ever. Second - I give & bequeath to my dearly beloved wife

life & after her decease to my daughter Rebecca her heirs for Third - I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth a feather bed and furniture, which she now has in possession

I give unto my daughter Lydia Braddy one feather bed & furniture

Fourth - I give & bequeath to my daughter Louisa Braddy one feather bed & furniture Fifth - it is my wish that my acre and more be sold and the proceeds be applied to the payment of my just debts. Seventh -

I make and appoint my son Amos Braddy Executor to this my will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal this second day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight. Willie Braddy

IN THE NAME OF GOD, Amen! I, Elkannah Allen, of the county of Brunswick and State of North Carolina, fully convinced of the uncertainty of life, & being of a sound disposing mind, & during it prudent to make a disposition of all my worldly estate, do ordain and publish this my last Will & Testament in manner & form following. I resign my soul to God from whence I received it, and my body to that earth from which it was taken, as to my worldly estate which I may at the time of my death possess, I give, bequeath & devise unto my beloved wife, Ellen Allen and to my son Elkannah Allen, to their heirs executors & administrators forever, the plantation whereon I live, and what other land I enjoy, also all the right & titles that I hold for the negroes that are now in debt, belong to my Father's estate, namely, Hannah with her increase, & belong with hers. Should she ever marry again the said property shall not be conveyed away, nor sold for any debt whatsoever of her husband's contracting. Signed, sealed, published & delivered before me by Elkannah Allen on May 27th 1827, to be his last will & testament & signed by him in our presence. John Neal. Elkannah Allen
