

North Carolina,
Macon County.

121

I, Charles B. Vanhook, of the aforesaid county and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament.

My Executrix hereinafter named shall give my body decent burial suitable to my station in society and the wishes of my friends, and pay my funeral expenses together with all my just debts out of the first moneys coming into her hands belonging to my estate.

d. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Flora, all the personal property belonging to my estate at the time of my death, after all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid and it is my will and desire that my said wife, Flora, shall select such parts of my personal property as she may desire sold to carry out the first paragraph of this will should there not be enough money on hand belonging to my estate at the time of my death to do so.

d. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Flora, all my real property, the farm on which I now live, and all other real property I may own or may hereafter acquire in fee simple to use for the benefit of herself and our children.

give my body decent burial suitable

d. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Flora, all my real property, the farm on which I now live, and all other real property I may own or may hereafter acquire in fee simple to use for the benefit of herself and our children, Clara, Grace and Ernest, in such way as she may deem for the best interest of herself and said children.
th. I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Flora Vanhook my lawful executrix to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, every part and clause thereof.

In witness whereof I the said Chas.
B. Vanhook, do hereunto set my hand and seal. This March 22 day 1902.
