Item 3rd I want Wallace to satisfy all my just debts and if my Mother should come to want, I want him to give to her as long as he has a cent— this 14th day of March 1853

W. D. Manning

I pronounce this to be my last will & Testament

W. D. Manning

Martin County Court
April Term 1866

A paper writing, purporting to be the last will and Testament of W. D. Manning, was exhibited in open Court for probate by Wallace Manning the executor therein named and it was proved in due form that the said paper writing was found after the death of the said W. D. Manning in a Trunk among his valuable papers and effects and it was also proved by M. A. Manning, James Robinson and M. J.
Crawford Credible witnesses, that the said paper writing and every part thereof is in the hand, writing and every part thereof is in the hand writing of the said W. D. Manning; it is adjudged by the Court that the same is duly proved as the last will and Testament of the said W. D. Manning, and it is ordered to be recorded. Then upon Wallace Manning was duly qualified as the Executor of W. D. Manning, according to Law, The Value of the estate was valued to be $5000—upon evidence produced
