

James Bell's Will

In the name of God Amen I James Bell of Northampton County North Carolina do make this my last will and Testament in the manner and form following Viz

I give and devise to my loving wife Elizabeth Bell one negro at her own choice, one bed and furniture, a Desk and press with an equal share of the remaining furniture and Stock with my Children.

It is my will that all my property should be kept together to support my wife and family during my wife's widowhood or until my eldest Daughter comes of age, and that my wife should have the third of my land during her life.

It is my will and desire that my real and personal property that has not been already gifted be equally divided among my Children when they come to maturity, And I hereby constitute my wife and Mother my whole and sole Executor to this my last will hereby revoking all former wills by me made in presence of the several persons who subscribe themselves hereunto As Witnesses at my Request, on the 15th day of March Anno Domini 1798.
