A paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Frances Mullis deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of Superior Court for said County, by David R Pusser the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Frances Mullis is proven by the oath and examination of H A Austin & J H Love the subscribing witnesses thereto; who, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, ~~and~~ each for himself that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Frances Mullis that the said Frances Mullis, in ~~the~~ his presence subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing and which bears date of the 23^d day of April 1895, that the said Frances Mullis did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing to be her Last Will and Testament, and that he did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testatrix, that at the time the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said Last Will as aforesaid, and at the time he subscribed his name as a witness thereto, the said Frances Mullis was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of the deponent. It is therefore adjudged that the said paper-writing and every part and clause thereof is the Last Will and Testament of Frances Mullis, deceased, and ordered that the same be recorded and that Letters Testamentary be issued to David R. Pusser, the Executor therein named, who thereupon takes the oath required by law and Letters Testamentary are issued to him. This 22^d day of August, 1898,
