State of North Carolina,

Union County. } ss. In the Superior Court.

A paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Frederick Threath deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of Court for said County, by Mary Threath, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Frederick Threath is proven before me by the oath and examination of H S Presson and J L Ballings the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, each for himself, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Frederick Threath; that the said Frederick Threath in his presence subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing and which bears date of the 6th day of August, 1890; that the said Frederick Threath did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing to be his Last Will and Testament, and that he did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, that at the time the said testator subscribed his name to the said Last Will as aforesaid and at the time he subscribed his name as a witness thereto, the said Frederick Threath was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of the deponent.

It is therefore adjudged that the said paper-writing and every part and clause thereof is the Last Will and Testament of Frederick Threath, deceased, and ordered that the same be recorded and that Letter Testamentary be issued to Mary Threath, the Executrix therein named, who thereupon takes the oath required by law and Letter Testamentary are issued to her upon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, that at the time the said testator subscribed his name to the said Last Will as aforesaid and at the time he subscribed his name as a witness thereto, the said Frederick Threath was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of the deponent.

It is therefore adjudged that the said paper-writing and every part and clause thereof is the Last Will and Testament of Frederick Threath, deceased, and ordered that the same be recorded and that Letters Testamentary be issued to Mary Threath, the Executrix therein named, who thereupon takes the oath required by law and Letters Testamentary are issued to her.
