State of North Carolina, }
Union County, } In the Superior Court,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John Love, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by H. A. Love, one of the executors therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of C. C. Love, Jr. that C. C. Love, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead, and it is also proved by the oath of James H. Love that Jas. B. Tarlton, the other subscribing witness thereto also is dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said C. C. Love, Jr. that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said C. C. Love, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said C. C. Love subscribed as a witness to the said Will, is in the handwriting of the said C. C. Love; and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said James H. Love that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Jas. B. Tarlton, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said Jas. B. Tarlton subscribed as a witness to the said Will, is in the handwriting of the said Jas. B. Tarlton.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last Will and Testament of the said John Love, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed, and that Letters Testamentary be issued to the executors therein named. This 18th day of November, 1898.
