

Plymouth, N.C., March 22, 1921.

This is my last will. I am of my good mind after all of my just debts are paid I my wife to have possession of the tract of land known as the Baxter tract as long as she stays single after her death possession then give over to my Daughter Allie M. Hair & to sons Linwood M. Hair & the Jim Hacker to be sold & the money taken to help pay the indebtedness on this tract known as the Baxter tract of land

John Coleman

& all of my Intestate in Farkers estate in Pitt County I want that to go to my Daughter Martha J. Hulse in Edgecombe Co.

John Coleman

State of North Carolina, }
Washington County, } In the Superior Court,

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of John Coleman, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Annie Coleman, one of the devisees therein named; and it is therefore proved by the oath and examination of Annie Coleman that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said John Coleman after his death; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: Richard Ruffin, H. B. Cox & D. V. Clayborne, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said John Coleman, having often seen him write, and truly believe that the name of the said John Coleman subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said John Coleman. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said John Coleman. It is, therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said John Coleman, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

Sworn to and subscribed before me,
this 22nd day of Jan'y, 1924.
C. D. W. Atkinson, J. C. C.

R. N. Ruffin

H. B. Cox

D. V. Clayborne

North Carolina, Washington County,

I, Pamela F. Senale, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First - I give and bequeath to James Edward Senale my old homestead, containing twenty-five acres more or less, all my cash, goods and and chattels,

Provided - the said James Edward Senale shall give to each of the heirs of Thelma Adalachi Lee, two dollars, and provided further that he shall give my body a decent burial and pay all my honest debts out of the first money coming into his hands out of said estate.

I hereby appoint the said James Edward Senale my Administrator, without bond, to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring void all other wills and testaments by me made.

In witness whereof, I the said Pamela F. Senale, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 28th day of March, 1921,

P. F. Senale

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Pamela F. Senale to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Done this the 28th day of March 1921.

Thos. B. Jackson

J. R. Latham

State of North Carolina, }
Washington County, } In the Superior Court,

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of P. F. Senale, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Jas. E. Senale, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said P. F. Senale, by the oath and examination of J. R. Latham the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of P. F. Senale; that the said P. F. Senale, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown, as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 28th day of March, 1921.

And this deponent further saith, that the said P. F. Senati, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said P. F. Senati was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent says not.

Sworn and subscribed, this 28th day of Feb., 1924, before me,

C. W. Tinsboro

Clk. Superior Court.

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court,
Hawking Co. County.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of P. F. Senati, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Jas. C. Senati the executor therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of R. C. Jackson that Thos. B. Jackson one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said R. C. Jackson that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Thos. B. Jackson, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said Thos. B. Jackson subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the handwriting of the said Thos. B. Jackson. It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said P. F. Senati, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 28th day of Feb., 1924.

C. W. Tinsboro Clk.,

State of North Carolina,
County of Washington.

I David G. Darden of the aforesaid County and State being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament.

First: My Executors hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial suitable to my friends and relations and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second: I will and devise to my beloved wife Mary D. Darden all my earthly possessions both real and personal of every kind for her natural life.

Third: I will and bequeath to my son Willard G. Darden one-fifth (1/5) interest in the lands where I now live.

Fourth: I will and bequeath to my son P. H. Darden one-fifth (1/5) interest in the lands where I now live.

Fifth: I will and bequeath to my son John H. Darden one-fifth (1/5) interest in the lands where I now live.

Sixth: I will and bequeath to my son A. T. Darden one-fifth (1/5) interest in the lands where I now live.

Seventh: My son Stewart F. Darden having remained with me aiding and assisting me in my old age; to him I will and bequeath one-fifth (1/5) interest in the lands where I now live and further it is my will and desire that at the death of my wife the said son Stewart F. Darden shall be given one third and all other farming implements on the place since he already hath a material interest in the same.

Eighth: It is my will and desire that after the death of my wife and the burial expenses have been paid that all the personal property and chattels be sold and the net proceeds from such sale be equally divided between my beloved daughters, Helene D. and Fanny H. and child J.

Ninth: It is also my will and desire that should either of the sons herein provided for die without bodily heirs that the interest of such son in said lands shall revert to the living sons of this body, him.

Tenth: I hereby constitute and appoint my son P. H. Darden my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same and my part and clause thereof hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me made heretofore.