of the City of Charleston and State aforesaid being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding blessed be God for the same Considering the nature and transitory character of human existence & that it is given unto all men to die, whilst I have strength sufficient I do hereby revoking all Will by me at any time heretofore made make and publish this my Last Will and Testament as follows. Inprimis I commit my immortal Soul to God, hoping for a glorious resurrection thro: the atoning merits of my ever blessed Saviour the Lord Jesus Christ.
In the second place as respects such worldly Estate and property whether real or personal whereunto it has pleased Almighty God to bless me I give devise and bequeath the same to my dear and well beloved Wife Mary Hanley to have and to hold the same to her her heirs Executors Administrators and assigns forever. And lastly I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my said Wife the Sole Executor of this my Will.
In Witness Whereof I have hereunto subscribed my hand and affixed my Seal this Sixth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and twenty one and in the forty sixth Year of American Independence. John Hanley
