 Horry District } To James Bealy, Ordinary for said district - The petition of Lucetta Graham widow of Joseph Graham late of said District deceased, sheweth that her husband died intestate having about six hundred acres of land with some improvements thereon that she is desirous to have her share of the said land either in money or in land as the law may allow to her - she therefore prays that a summons in Partition may be granted, directed to all of the legal heirs of her said deceased husband that they appear personally or by guardian before a Court of Ordinary to shew cause why the said lands should not be divided or sold alloting to your petitioner her distributive share of the same your petitioner will ever pray to
