

I, HUNDLEY EVATT, of State and District aforesaid being of sound and disposing mind and memory and calling to mind the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous to dispose of all such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with - do make and ordain this my last will and testament - in manner following, that is to say -

First, I desire that immediately after my death that such of my property as my wife and executors may think best to dispose of be immediately sold, and out of the moneys arising therefrom my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

Secondly, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife (should she survive me) one negro man Isaac one negro woman Bethany & her daughter Inaretia. All my stock of horses, cattle, hogs & sheep that she may wish to keep. Also one waggon and farming tools together with the household and kitchen furniture during her natural life. And in case the negro man becomes unruly I empower my Executors with the consent of my wife to sell him to the best advantage and put the money to interest for her benefit and also two hundred and fifty dollars in cash if she may have need of so much.

Thirdly, I give and bequeath unto my beloved son Thompson Evatt sixty dollars ( he having previously rec'd what he acknowledged to be his equitable share of my estate.)

Fourthly, I desire that immediately after the death of my wife or the termination of her widowhood that all my property left in her hand for her use and benefit be sold immediately and debts due her collected by Executors and divided in manner following, that is to say, one fifth part thereof to be equally divided between my grandson and granddaughter Hundley E. Campbell, Abbey Ritter Evatt, and to my three children William Min Mary Carlton Arnold and Sarah Arena to each one-fifth part thereof and to my grandson James F. S. Evatt the other fifth part. And in case of his death without <sup>living</sup> lawful issue or in case of his having no lawful issue at the time of his decease, then and in such case the said fifth part as above allotted to him is to revert back and be divided as follows, one fourth part ~~was~~ thereof to William Min Evatt Evatt, one fourth to Mary C. Arnold, one fourth to Sarah A. Evatt and the other fourth to be equally between Hundley E. Campbell and Abbey R. ~~Evatt~~.

And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my worthy and trusty friend F. N. Carvin and my beloved son William Min Evatt Executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others by me made.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 6th day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty nine.
