and Jas Coulter, and about 40 acres on the North East side of the 100 acre tract; but I give and devise to my wife, Nancy Headrick the right to the use of the dwelling house and garden situate on the land above described to my said two sons - Charles Lee Headrick and Franklin Erwan Headrick, also to the right to the use of the rents and tolls arising from grist mill situate on said home farm, for the benefit of herself and my daughter, Martha Jane Headrick, Orzalia Rowens Headrick and Vadie Ellen Headrick and my two said sons, so long as they live with their mother; this occupancy of my dwelling house by my wife and children and the receipts of the rents or tolls of the mill to extend during the lifetime of my wife.

Second. I give and devise to my wife Nancy Headrick, all the rest and remainder of my real estate or land of which I am seized and possessed, including the land lying in the 13th District - being part of the John McCulloch farm, as well as the balance of my land lying in the 14th District of Blount County, said lands to hold by my said wife as a life estate on the same to her exclusive use and enjoyment for and during the period of her natural life, and at her death I give and devise the remainder to my children, Charles Lee Headrick, Franklin Erwan Headrick, Martha Jane Headrick, Orzalia Rowens Headrick and Vadie Ellen Headrick, in fee.

Third. I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Annie Davis, daughter of Mollie Davis, dead a boy filly or mare call about 2 1/2 or 3 years old - called Nell.

Fourth. I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Russell wife of Riley Russell, twenty dollars to be paid by my Executor as soon after my death as he or she may have any money on hands of my estate to pay the same.

Fifth. I direct that my Executor sell two steers, being the largest steers owned by me, also two mixed cows and a two years old heifer, and with the proceeds, he shall pay any debts which I may owe.

Sixth. I give and bequeath all the rest and residue of my personal estate, house, cattle, hogs, farming tools, threshing machine, horse carts, wheat drill &c, as well as any notes, or debts due me, or money on hand, to my wife Nancy Headrick, to be used and enjoyed by her or disposed of by her, as she may think best for the interest of herself and my children by her who may live with her. However it is my desire that my children may have the use of the threshing machine when not needed by my wife, provided they will hold my wife keep it in repair.

Lastly, I nominate and appoint my wife Executrix of this my last will - and I hereby release and release my wife - Nancy Headrick - as such Executrix - from giving any bond, or making any settlement with the County Court, This October 21st 1898.

Will of. Wilmon W. Gibbs

In the Name of God, Amen. I, Wilmon W. Gibbs of the County of Blount and State of Tennessee, being sick of body but of sound and disposing mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life, and the importance of settling our earthly affairs before death do make, ordain, and establish, this my last will and testament; revoking all former wills and agreements heretofore made by me with any other persons. My body I consign to its mother earth and will that it be decently interred. My soul I commend to the God who gave, and the blood of Jesus who redeemed it.

1st. Of all; I will, that of my real estate, and personal property after my death; that all my just and honest debts together with my funeral expenses be paid and discharged.

December, 1898.

Then whatever may remain of real or personal property, money, or notes, goods or chattels. I give and bequeath to my daughter Alta J. Finger for the good and kind treatment during my last illness and the final disposition of my body. My other heirs Martha L. Moton William Silas Gibbs, Rasmus F. Gibbs John S. Gibbs, Steven P. Gibbs and James Marion Gibbs, have all been given and provided for, as far as my earthly means have afforded in the passed.

I appoint Adam Finger as my Executor and authorize him to take charge of all my effects and see that I am well and amply provided for while I live, and that my will is executed as herein set forth, not requiring him to give any bond or security.

In witness I hereunto set my hand and seal - this 15th day Oct., 1898.
