Daniel Osborn

The last will and testament of Daniel Osborn was produced to Court for probate whereupon ^{George Pierce} Ephraim Lee one of the subscribing witnesses on his solemn affirmation declared that he saw Daniel Osborn sign and seal and heard him pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament that he was at the time of publishing the same of sound mind and memory according to the best of his knowledge & belief and that he saw Jesse Everett put his mark to the same as subscribing witness. Which will is ordered to be recorded as in the words and figures following to wit

I Daniel Osborn of the county of Knox and State of Tennessee being in usual health of body and of sound mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will & testament and hereby dispose of the worldly property it hath pleased God to bless me with in the following manner and form

It is my will and desire that as soon as may be practicable after my decease all my just debts be paid by my Executors who will be named hereafter.

Item. My last will and testament I now live consisting of one hundred and seven acres with the buildings and all appurtenances thereto belonging, give will and bequeath to my son in law Moses Marten, my beloved wife Margaret Osborn to have her maintenance during her widowhood.

Item I give will and bequeath to my wife Margaret Osborn all my household and kitchen furniture and the best horse bridle and side saddle that I have belong to me at my decease to be her own right to keep dispose of and to whom she will. Item it is my will and desire that all my live stock except the best mentioned and all my farming and mechanical tools to descend to be the property of my son in law Moses Marten.

Item It is my express will and desire that my son in law Moses Marten whom I have made my principal legatee, as may be after my decease pay to each of my children as named and directed to my sons Peter Osborn, Daniel Osborn

Charles Osborn, William Osborn, Isaac Osborn one dollar to each to my daughters Rachel Lewis, Elizabeth Stout who is deceased, now to her daughter Margaret Stout one dollar to each.

Item. I make and ordain my beloved wife Margaret Osborn Executrix, and my son Charles Osborn executor of this my last will and testament and do by these presents make void and disannul all former wills or testaments whatever made by me. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirty first day of the fifth month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen signed and declared in presence of George Pierce

Together with said will was also produced a codicil for probate whereupon Ephraim Lee one of the subscribing witnesses on his solemn affirmation declared that he saw Daniel Osborn sign and seal, and heard him pronounce & publish the same as his supplement to the foregoing will and that he saw Jesse Everett put his mark to the same as a subscribing witness. Which is ordered to be recorded and is in the words following to wit

Schedule or supplement to the above will.
I hereby release my son Charles Osborn from being Executor and appoint my son in law Moses Marten Executor in his place and do hereby declare the foregoing will to be my genuine will and testament and this an explanatory supplement thereto - that is to say, I have disposed of my estate in the foregoing manner for these reasons. First I have given to each of my children except my daughter Margaret and Moses Marten her husband their respective parts or portions of my estate. Second. It is mutually agreed that Moses Marten and Margaret his wife live with me and do for me and my wife, taking the reasonable and necessary care, for our maintenance and comfortable accommodation during our natural lives. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this ninth day of the fourth month in the year of our Lord 1816

Martha M^cNair

60 pds The Executors of Martha M^cNair make known to your worships that their testatrix at the time of her death had no estate real or personal except that which she derived under the will of her deceased husband James M^cNair and that as he had died very shortly before her, no division of property had taken place so as to enable them to ascertain to what part thereof she was entitled under his will
