 Third after the above special bequest the remainder of what I then owned and possessed to be equally divided between my three children W. S. Brown, H. A. Brown and A. A. Brown said division to be made to be made whenever the guardian executor and heirs may think best: it being my desire that the family remain together here on the homestead as long as may be practicable and my son W. S. Brown being the eldest consequently most of the labor will devolve upon him, and I desire that he be recompensed for said labor out of the surplus that may be made on the farm. the balance of said surplus to be equally divided between my three children as above named also it is my desire that Mr. A. Steadly, who has been with us for several years remain in the family as long as it may be considered right and proper by the guardian executor and heirs, and that she paid $350.00 to my five dollars extra of her wages for each year that she may remain in the family. And furthermore it is my heartfelt desire that each one strive to live as this should, in order that their next of kin might this life may be as full and and profitable as possible and that their end may be peace.

Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint W. S. Brown my executor, also would recommend him as a suitable guardian.

In witness whereof I date this my will at my hand and seal. This the 15th day of Sept 1881

The last will of Andrew J. Millthorn died. Admitted to probate County Court April term 1882

To all whom it may concern Be it known that Andrew Jackson Millthorn of Sullivan County State of Tenn. being of sound mind but on account of the feeble condition of my health, realizing the solemn fact that I cannot remain a very great while in this world to direct and control the business affairs.

of my household, do this day and in the presence of the undersigned witnesses without constraint or persuasion from any one make this my last will and Testament.

1st It is my will that my wife Ann Millhorn shall have the contrall of and receive the proceeds of a certain tract of land that I bought of George Hammon adjoining the lands of Mrs Susan Hamilton D. & Ford and others. The same to insure to the benefit of her and the children who remain with her in the family during her natural life.

2nd At the death of my wife Ann Millhorn it is my will that the tract of land above mentioned shall be equally divided between my sons, Jas P. Millhorn Abram & Millhorn and Wm. Millhorn with the following conditions to wit: Jas P. & Abram & Millhorn shall each pay to my son John A. Millhorn the sum of twenty five ($25) dollars.

I make this disposition of the above tract of land in consideration of the fact that these my sons above mentioned have kindly helped me in providing for the family in my declining years and especially that they helped to make the money to buy this land.

3^d It is my will that whenever my single daughter Mary and Eliza shall leave the family or at the death of their mother, each of them shall have a cow making them equal in this respect to my married daughters Barbara & Elizabeth, each of whom have received a cow from me.

4th It is my will (as I have already given each of my sons, except the youngest a good colt) that thirty ($30) dollars of the proceeds of the land above mentioned be applied to buying a colt for my son Wm. Millhorn.

5th It is my will and desire that the pair of mules which I now own, the same being young, sound and trim, shall not be sold or swapp'd off during the natural life of my wife Ann Millhorn living as I do that these mules with proper treatment ^{will} do good service through the remainder of her life provided they do not meet with any serious accident.

6th I further desire that my son Jas P. Millhorn do act as executor of this my last will and Testament, and that he shall proceed to sell any loose property, stock, or grain not exempt to his mother and settle the expense of my burial and all other just claims against me out of the same, and I further desire that my son Jas P. Millhorn shall as early as possible purchase and set up over my grave a respectable set of tomb stones, the same to be paid for out of the proceeds of my estate.

I'm witnesses whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name in the presence of witnesses, this 13th day of September 1881.
