Will of Solomon Smith

I, Solomon Smith, being of sound mind and perfect memory, do make and publish this my last will and Testament in manner and form following: First I will and bequeath to my wife Eliza Smith, all the lands that I now own, together with all the stock, farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture, also the two hundred and twenty five dollars, due in the East Sea and Virginia route Road, to be and remain hers during her widowhood, and at her death I will that the land be equally divided between my four sons taking into consideration the improvements timber lands &c the division to be made by four disinterested & impartial, citizens of Sullivan to be chosen by the heirs or Guardians.

I demand, in addition to the life estate that my Father willed to my sister Mary Smith, which is to fail to me at the end of her widowhood, I will that she shall have the Benefits of all the lands that she has enclosed at this time but it is not my wish that she shall make any further improvement. There is made but little she have only enough to timber enough for fire wood and to keep up the improvement that is already made and at the end of her widowhood, I will that that land also be equally divided between my four sons the division to be made as at one parcel of my other lands.

Thirdly, I will add bequeath to each one of my daughters the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars which shall be paid out of the proceeds of the farm as fast as it can be made and most conveniently spared, and that the cow and the saddle that Amanda & James has already received is to be considered apart of her legacy at the ordinary price of such property at the time she received them.

Fourthly I hereby authorize my wife or my woman either of them to sell the stock that I have in the East Tennessee and Virginia rail road if she should see fit at any time if they or either of them should think it best to do so and apply the proceeds to the payment of debts or to the use of the family as they may think best.

Fifth I appoint Jesse M. Stewart to be my Executor to settle up all my business to collect all my dues and to pay all my debts out of the same as fast as it can be done, and if there is not enough due me to pay all my then he may take and sell such personal property as can be most conveniently spared of the place to pay the same if there should be more money due me than is required to pay my debts then it shall be paid to my wife for the use of the family.

Signed seal and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names thereto in the presence of the Testator this 21st day of March 1861
