Last will of Testament (Probated May term 1894)

John V. Stine died. In the name of God, Amen. I, John V. Stine & Martha J. Stine of the State of Tennessee and County of Sullivan being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life do hereupon make, ordain, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament. That is to say. First, after all my lawful debts are paid and discharged the residue of my estate real & personal bequeath and dispose of as follows to wit:

To our daughter Estlin E. Holt formerly Stine, one tract of land worn as now in known as the Madden farm, containing one hundred and fifty acres more or less, and thirty acres of land off or the west end of the Woodson farm - and the remainder of the Woodson farm to our daughter Estlin E. Holt formerly Stine. This real estate above mentioned to my two heirs is to be held by them as divided after my death, then to have and hold the above mentioned lands.

This the 23rd of August 1883 - John V. Stine Test.

Martha J. Stine

William Lambirth - The foregoing instrument was proven to Adam D. Holt, an open Court by the oaths of William Lambirth & Adam D. Holt subscribing witnesses thereof on the 15th day of May 1894, and the same said instrument was adjudged and declared by the Court to be the last will and testament of John V. Stine decd. and ordered to be recorded in the book of wills.
