 So write I. John Hard
 Sept. 6. 97. 11:30 O'clock A.M.

For County Court at Bloomville. Surro.
 June 6th 1904. I testator have been for days studying impossibilities on the part of legitis enjoyment - and Consolation - Changes - require Changes Whereas Abel B. Hard's home is changed and his needs are changed and requirements of him by testator can not now be to whom required Therefore my will of one fourth part of my three hundred and twenty acres of land will be to Abel B. Hard I now will to David H. Hard and the requirements claimed of Abel B. Hard I now claim of David H.
 Hard and that one hundred and thirty dollars (and if voluntarily value and voluntarily chose pay additional twenty three dollars and also $5 to each of the six sisters) he said to his five daughters two years after my death as required paid to each of the six sisters And one hundred and forty seven dollars to the five grand daughters to each one her part when twenty one years of age And whereas James H. M. Hard has moved to San Francisco California as though he not wanting my portion and money land therefore instead of one fourth of my three hundred and twenty acres of land to James H. M. Hard I now change and divide the same one fourth part of my three hundred and twenty acres to William H. Hard and same requirements of William H. Hard now instead of James H. M. Hard and to pay James H. M. Hard one hundred and thirty dollars three years and six months after my death the same as required paid to the sisters (and if voluntarily value and voluntarily pay additional twenty three dollars and also the same to each one of the six sisters) and sato do is better than saying shall and pay one hundred and forty seven dollars to James H. M. Hard children to each one its share when twenty one years old the same as to the other grand children And as to requirement to John H. M. Boy for preaching to the poor wondering he don't work in colleges and symphony where not so much need and reward according to wants a worth of the parish And as to requirement to David H. Hard for preaching to the poor wondering he never arrived Collegiated and Synnarianly enough to be permitted to preach in requirement of Synod gone under in consolidation shall - shall - shall - seemingly as was consolidation under Oberchadwin's shall worship the Golden image we may suppose there was gladness because of the wonderful majority - Well the King had to eat bread & he had no sow to redeem from under, shall x. 7. I want the money, thirty dollars per year to preachers in that party that want out of Church in Synod in May 1820 Nor did not go out of Church Synod in October 1860 it is under law shall - shall - shall - thought worth the same constituted seeming to prohibiting honoring Gospel freedom inexpressible more worthy of honor than was the Serpent's promise of freedom to promise, rather than honor, prohibitory law wonderful free! And now when God is redeemer and reafford of special and greatest promises ever afforded man's humanity has the audacity hardhood to come up and claim law honor rather than God's redemption and this reaffording of special Oh when will be a stop of Greed So write testator John Hard to honor-
