Last Will & Testament
Martin M. Smith, died. Probated September term, 1901.

I, Martin M. Smith, of Blountville, Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

First, I direct that all my just debts, including funeral expenses and expenses of administration be paid by my executor. In order to get money with which to pay my debts, I hereby authorize and empower my executor to sell, at private sale, to the best possible advantage, the following described property, to wit: One white spotted steer about one year old, 1 speckled cow called "Speck", 1 red steer calf aged about three months. If said described property should not sell for enough money to pay my indebtedness, then I direct that my executor pay the balance of my debts, out of any money I may have at the time of my death.

Second, I will, bequeath, and devise, to my beloved wife, Mary Jane Smith, all the balance and remainder of my estate of every character and description, personal and real, legal and equitable, wherever situated or located, to be hers absolutely.

Third, I hereby nominate and appoint J. J. White sole executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 23rd day of Aug. 1901.

M. M. Smith
Martin M. Smith

Signed by the said Martin M. Smith, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at his request, and in his sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses, the day and date above written.
