

Torbette, R. L. Torbette, Addie Keebler, Ellen Page and Eli Torbette, after my brother Josiah Torbette is paid three hundred dollars from my real estate. It is further my will that Eli Torbette shall still have the use of the farm and stock as long as he remain on the farm and provide for my widow, and that he have pay out of the proceeds of the farm and stock for keeping the farm in good repair also it is my will that no timber be sold from the farm before division or sale is made as above stated.

Last it is my will and I hereby appoint William M. Poe to be the executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 20th day of April 1903
John Torbett

Attest
R. F. King
Robert L. Allison

State of Tennessee The foregoing written Sullivan County instrument was proven in open Court by the oaths of R. F. King and Robert L. Allison subscribing witnesses thereto on this the 8th day of March 1903, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will & testament of John Torbett, decd, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

Jno. R. Snow, Clerk
by J. H. Ingoldby, D.C.

Last Will Testament

of
Cornelia E. Powell, decd.  Probated March Term, 1902.
I the undersigned Cornelia E. Powell, being of sound mind and memory, viewing the uncertainty of life and desiring to arrange my worldly affairs, do hereby make, execute and publish this my last will and testament, expressly revoking all other wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First: I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses, including the cost of suitable tombstones for my grave, shall be first paid out of any personal property I may have at my death.

Second: I own the property where I now live, situated on the West Side of Fifth Street, in Bristol, Tennessee, consisting of house and lot and out houses; and I expressly will and devise this property to my daughter Hattie Powell, in fee simple.

Third: I own a town lot situated on Shelby Street in Bristol, Tennessee; and I expressly will and devise the same to my son, Lee Powell, in fee simple.

Fourth: I will and devise the balance of all property I may be possessed of, not herein before disposed of, whether real, personal or mixed, as follows: One-third part thereof to my said son, Lee Powell and two-thirds thereof to my said daughter, Hattie Powell.

I hereby appoint A. D. McNeill as Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, in the presence of W. H. Davis and others, at my request, in my presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto signed their names as witnesses, all on the 26 day of July 1901.

Witness:
H. H. Davis
Cornelia E. Powell

State of Tennessee The foregoing written instrument Sullivan County was proven in open Court by the oaths of W. H. Davis, subscribing witnesses thereto, on this the 10 day of March, 1902, and thereupon said written instrument was adjudged, declared and decreed by the Court to be the last will & testament of Cornelia E. Powell, decd, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

Attest:
Jno. R. Snow, Clerk.