

John Blairs Will

James Moore does take care of and provide for my wife Lanny Blair during his life he is to have the wagon plough and farming utensils and also my cloth and gun - and my said wife Lanny Blair is to have all the household furniture beds parter &c and also the loom & kitchen &c &c he with the whole is to live and belong to my P. adoptive son James Moore upon the above conditions - And finally I do appoint again and constitute my beloved wife Lanny Blair to be the executor of this my last will & testament - And I do hereby revoke and annul all former wills testaments legacies or bequestments heretofore made and do establish ratify and confirm the and now aforesaid being my last will and testament - And in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this day & year first above written -

John Blair (Seal)
Witness present

John Strain The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oaths of John Strain & James Twigg, Twigg the Subscribing witnesses, Thirties at November 1803 -

Sepe Blackers will

I Sepe Blacker of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee do make this my last will and testament in manner and form as follows - I do hereby give and devise that all my property of every kind be left in the possession of my wife during her widowhood and if she shall marry before the youngest Child come of lawful age that the whole of my property to be sold and my wife to receive one third part and if she continues a widow until the youngest Child come of age that she is then to receive one third part of the money arising from the sale of all my property - I do hereby appoint my beloved wife as my last executrix of this my last will and testament In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 15th day of October 1801

Sepe Blacker (Seal)
Witness present

James Linn
Thomas Moore

Mary Blacker. The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oaths of Thomas Moore one of the Subscribing witnesses, Thirties at November 1803
Mary Blacker qualified as executrix to the foregoing will

William Carsons Will

I William Carson of Washington County and State of Tennessee being of sound mind and memory do make and publish my last will and testament in manner and form as follows - I do hereby give and devise that all my property of every kind be left in the possession of my wife during her widowhood and if she shall marry before the youngest Child come of lawful age that the whole of my property to be sold and my wife to receive one third part and if she continues a widow until the youngest Child come of age that she is then to receive one third part of the money arising from the sale of all my property - I do hereby appoint my beloved wife as my last executrix of this my last will and testament In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 15th day of October 1801

William Carson (Seal)
Witness present

Ellenor Carson
William Carothers

The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oaths of Lanny Carothers one of the Subscribing witnesses, Thirties at February 1804 & proved to be true. Polly Carson David Wilson and Samuel Davis qualified as executrix & executors of the foregoing will

Thomas Grisham Will

In the name of God Amen

I Thomas Grisham of Washington County & State of Tennessee being weak and sick in body but of sound mind and memory and being Married do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following and first I commend my soul to God my Maker and my body to the ground to be decently buried at the discretion of my family & friends - And secondly I wish all my last debts to be lawfully paid. And thirdly my will is that my wife Dorcas shall have and possess unto the end of my plantation on tract of land whereon I now live and all my movable estate stock and working tools of all kinds to enable her to raise her Children during her natural life and also to give and bequeath to my wife the following legacies to the Children as I have given as much to my four eldest Children as I am able to - I do hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah my will is that my daughter Sarah further my will is that my son Isaac and the young boy him and a saddle and one hundred and forty four & a half dollars that is in Helen hands and that my son Thomas have the young boy now and a saddle and that my son Isaac shall have a horse or mare and saddle equal to the others and my will is that when Isaac Thomas & Isaac shall marry or otherwise go to live for themselves that they be made equal to the others that are married in other kind of stock & having and further my will is that my youngest daughter Anna be made equal in every thing to her sisters And lastly my will is that at the death of my wife the land be equally divided between my two youngest sons Thomas & Isaac and that Isaac have twice if she be then alive. In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 5th day of October in the year 1803

Thomas Grisham Will

In presence of
Jonathan Maltby
John Beaman &c

Thomas his Grisham (Signed) mark

The foregoing will was proven in court by the Oaths of Jonathan Maltby and John Beaman &c the subscribers witnesses thereto at February Term 1804 & ordered to be recorded

Joseph Booth Will

I Joseph Booth of the County of Washington in the State of Tennessee calling to mind the mortality of my body & that one day I must die do make & declare this my last will & testament & dispose of such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with in the life in the following manner after all my last debts & funeral charges be paid to wit
I do give and bequeath unto Sarah my wife while she remains my widow all the land whereon I now live with the profits thereof until my son Joseph Booth comes to twenty one years of age and one third of the improved part of it after he arrives to that age and also the plantation which I bought of Henry Ligon with the twenty four acre tract lying to which I bought of Peter Walker until my son John Booth comes to twenty one years of age & afterwards one third of the present improved part thereof and also one fourth part of my personal estate besides the title of drawers two feather beds with their bedding & the bay mare that is in David Booth possession & my Mary mare and her saddle warming pear looking glass comb & trinkets belonging two tables which standards are now in the cellar behind your shop & one feather desk & half dozen plates over and above her fourth part (as above) to be at her disposal without limitation or widowhood

I do give & bequeath unto my son David Booth the tract of land which I bought of Phlegemon Brown he paying to the girl two hundred and fifty dollars in tender equal to corn at two shillings per bushel - And I give unto my son Joseph the land whereon (his mother first occupied) he paying two hundred & fifty dollars in tender equal to corn at two shillings per bushel to the girl - And my son John I do give the tract of land which I purchased of Henry Ligon & the tract lying to which he and wife for twenty four years and so forth in further land which he has to the same land and wife for twenty four years and so forth

Joseph Booth Will

at two shillings then three above payments to the girl to be equally divided among my six daughters An I give and bequeath unto my daughters Elizabeth Linnam Thelie & Rachel each twenty five dollars in tender as aforesaid Sarah Jane & three boys having already received that much - and all the rest of my estate I bequeath to be divided equally between Sarah my wife & six daughters Elizabeth Sarah Jane Linnam Thelie & Rachel and I do hereby constitute my son David Booth & my son in law John Mullen & Eli Edwards executors of this my last will and testament In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 30th of the 12th Month 1804

Signed & sealed by the J^d Joseph Booth as his last will & testament in presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names -
Isaac Hain
Isaac Embury
Elihu Embury

Joseph Booth (Signed)

The foregoing will was proven in court by the affirmations of Elihu Embury one of the subscribers witnesses thereto at the May Term 1805 & ordered to be recorded - Eli Edwards John Mullen & David Booth qualified as executors to the foregoing will

Thomas Murrays Will

In the name of God Amen

To all persons whom it may concern Greeting
I Thomas Murray of the County of Washington in the State of Tennessee being weak of body but of sound and healthy mind and memory and knowing the uncertainty of this life through the infirmity of old age do make and put in writing this my last will & testament in manner & form following - first my wife and mine that all my last debts be paid & funeral charges fully satisfied out of my estate - secondly I give and bequeath to my grandson Thomas Murray son of my son Shadrach the plantation now live on containing one hundred & fifty five acres with its appurtenances thereto belonging at the time of my death - thirdly I give and bequeath to my grandson John Murray son of my son Thomas one half and my wife and I do declare that I may die possessed of fourthly To my son Morgan Murray having heretofore given him what I intended to be his Myrtle of my estate except that I now give and bequeath to him my best suit of clothes that I am possessed of & no more fifthly To my daughter Elizabeth Thelie having heretofore given her what I intended to be her Myrtle of my estate I hereby bequeath and ratify unto her for ever all that I have heretofore given her and no more sixthly To my daughter Sarah Barron wife of Joseph Barron having heretofore given her what I intended to be her Myrtle of my estate I hereby bequeath and ratify unto her for ever all that I have heretofore given her and no more seventhly To my daughter Mary Barron wife of William Barron having heretofore given her what I intended to be her Myrtle of my estate I hereby bequeath and ratify unto her for ever all that I have heretofore given her and no more eighthly To my daughter Sarah Barron wife of Joseph Barron having heretofore given her what I intended to be her Myrtle of my estate I hereby bequeath and ratify unto her for ever all that I have heretofore given her and no more ninthly To my daughter Sarah Barron wife of Joseph Barron having heretofore given her what I intended to be her Myrtle of my estate I hereby bequeath and ratify unto her for ever all that I have heretofore given her and no more