

Henry Bottle Will.

I might have a house, saddle and bridle, one fishing ace, and sythe and craze, out of my estate. - ~~But~~ by will is that the intention of my daughter the Elizabeth Parker, and my daughter Sarah Ryble have all the movable or personal property that may be in hands at the death of my wife, so as to let the said children have one half of it. And I make and ordain my sons John and Joseph Bottles Executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof ~~the~~ ~~before~~ Henry Bottle here to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

Signed, sealed, published and declared ~~the~~ ~~before~~ Henry Bottle the testator as his last will and testament in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing and sealing thereof.

Christian Groves Will.

In the name of God Amen.
I Christian Groves of Washington County and State of Tennessee being weak in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory do hereby beforesaid Almighty God for the same do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, (to wit) First I give and bequeath unto my children Thomas Groves, and Catharine Susan Groves my house and lot where I now live, but it is my wish that my beloved wife Jane Groves should live in the house during her natural life or widowhood. But should she die, she must leave the house immediately and give and give property to my children (or executors) Second Should the children live to ~~the~~ years of 16 years of maturity and when of them should get married and one of them is able to buy the others interest in said house and lot. It is my wish it should be so, but if one of them is not able to buy the others interest, it is my wish if their mother is willing, that the house and lot should be sold and the money divided equally between them. I also will and bequeath to my wife all my household and kitchen furniture during her natural life or widowhood, after that for children. There will be six or seven hundred pounds of bacon, one steer and pigs in my shop and one shot gun, that I wish my executors to sell and pay my debts. Should the bacon store, and gun, bring more than will pay my debts, I wish the residue, together with what money I have on hand to be put out on interest for the benefit of my children, which I wish my executors to manage for the best. I hereby appoint James Brown and William Atkinson my executors of this my last will and testament In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and Daniel Bowman's Will.

In the name of God Amen
I Daniel Bowman being of sound mind and perfect memory, thanks to Almighty God, but calling to mind that it is appointed to man once to die, and the rights of years under which I am laboring admonishes me that time to me cannot be very distant, do make and ordain and publish this my last will and testament, embracing the mode and manner in which I dispose of such worldly estate as I am possessed of. First I will and direct that my body be interred with within earth in a decent and christian like manner and the expenses paid out of my estate by my executor. Then if any debt I owe (of which I have no knowledge) I direct the same to be paid out of my estate after which I will and direct that my beloved wife Rebecca, shall have, use, and enjoy during her natural life, the following property and estates, and after her decease to be disposed of as herein after provided, for that is to say, she is to have the upper room in the dwelling house which I now occupy, with its exclusive benefits and adventages, also three beds, stoves and furniture, cupboard and furniture, bedstead, with the furniture not herein after disposed off, one carry all or wagon, to be taken with the use of such part of the ~~estate~~ ~~property~~ which may accrue from time to time on my money and debts bearing interest as shall be requisite for her decent and comfortable support to be paid her as needed by my said executors. Next I will and bequeath to my son Jacob Bowman, that tract of land on which he now resides, commonly called the Lower place supposed to contain two hundred sixty eight acres, with all its appurtenances, to him and his heirs forever. - Then I give and bequeath to Catharine Goslin and the heirs of her body, the plantation on which she and her husband now live, known by the Rose tract, supposed to contain three hundred acres, including the piece purchased from Nathan Shipley, to her and her heirs forever. - Then I give to my son Samuel Bowman his heirs, and assigns forever, the tract of land on which he now lies, known by the Hunt tract, and supposed to contain one hundred sixty eight acres. - Then I give and bequeath to Susanah Groves, widow of John Groves and the heirs of her body forever, the tract of land situated Spencer Joseph Malvern, supposed to contain one hundred and sixty acres, which is to her the wife of Daniel Bowman.
