Joyner's
Will

In the name of God Amen I Phillip Joyner of Saint Ann's Parish in the County of Albemarle being of perfect and sound sense & Memory through the abundant mercy of God but calling to mind the uncertainty of this Transitory World, and that all flesh must yield when it is pleased God to call, therefore I do make this my last Will & Testament, and desire it may be Received by all persons as Such.

Imprimis I give & bequeath to my Dear & well beloved Wife Elizabeth Joyner all my Lands and Tenements whatsoever, with the Stocks of Cattle Hogs — Horses & Sheep &c. that are thereon during her Natural Life, and after her Decease the said Lands to be Equally Divided between my two ^{sons} viz.
Charles Gentry & Jose Gentry, giving Charles Gentry two hundred Acres with the plantation whereon I now live and the remaining two hundred Acres to fall to the said Jose Gentry ^{to} them & their heirs forever.

Item (and after my ^{said} Wife's Decease) I give and bequeath to my grand Daughter Elizabeth Gentry one feather Bed with the furniture thereto belonging, & also one cow & calf to her & her heirs forever.

Item I give and bequeath to my Grand Daughter Mary Gentry one feather Bed with the furniture thereto belonging & one Cow and calf and also one Hoffer to her and her heirs forever.

Item I give and bequeath to my Grand Daughter Sarah Gentry one Feather Bed & furniture thereto belonging likewise one cow & calf to her & her heirs forever. Item and the residue of my Estate Whither I desire my Will is that it may be Equally divided amongst my other grand children according to the discretion of my Dear and well beloved wife Elizabeth Joyner Wha' Winkfield, whom I appoint Executor of the said my last will & Testament In witness whereof I have set my hand & Seal this 12th Day of February 1766 & 67
