

Abbeville County, Virginia, MS 1748 to 1762 www.virginiapioneers.net of god a man William Arrington of Abbeville County the 21 day of December 1752 do make and declare this my last will in manner and form following I give and bequeath to my dear wife Ann and her heirs forever the one hundred acres and which is well on and lying along on James River on the south side also I give to my wife one negro slave named London and one of bedditts furniture and one cow and my stock of hoggs I give to my sons Adair and Samuel to them and their heirs forever my estate of land on the creek also I give to each of my daughters forty shillings Curr^t Money one cow to adden a horse and one yearling too I give unto my daughter Ann ducey to her and her heirs forever one horse I give to my daughter Martha I give to my daughter

Eliza I give unto my son Thomas and to his heirs forever one cow I give to my son William and to his heirs forever

Albemarle County, Virginia Wills 1748 to 1752

I give to my daughter Martha her heirs forever and her heirs forever one half unto my son Thomas and to his heirs forever one half I give to my son William and to his heirs forever one half my real and personal estate my estate shall not be appraised I do nominate and appoint my own Neeces Arrington and William Niggenoon my Executors to this my last will and Test ament and do acknowledge publish and declare this above Writing to be the same In the presence of William Finch Ann Finch

William Arrington his Ann Finch made

Albemarle Court 1750

This writing was by the Oath of William Finch and Ann Finch proved to be the last will and Testament of William Arrington and ordered to be recorded Witness my hand
Albemarle Court 1750

Albemarle Court November Court 1759

This writing was produced in Court and by the Oath of Ann Finch was proved to be the last will and Testament of William Arrington and ordered to be recorded