

This is the last will and Testament of Alexander MacKenzie Johnstone, Merchant, now residing in Alexandria in the District of Columbia. I revoke all other wills heretofore made by me.
I commit my body to the earth, and my spirit to God who gave it, un-better world, through the atonement and intercession of my Messiah redeemer, Jesus Christ.

I dispossess of the worldly estate, which it has pleased God to give me, in the following manner to wit: All my right title and interest in the real estate which remains undivided of my deceased father, Dennis Mc Carlen Johnston, and all my personal property, I devise to my brothers Charles Pearson Johnston and John Duntap Johnston and my aunt Elizabeth MacKenzie, wife of my uncle Alexander MacKenzie, one third part to each, to them and their heirs forever, subject nevertheless to the payment of my just debts - and particularly my proportion of the debt due to my uncle and late wife, James Alexander MacKenzie as ascertained by his settlement with the Friends Church of Alexandria County, D.C. I nominate and appoint the said Alexander MacKenzie trustee and executor of this my last will and testament and direct that no security shall be required of him having full confidence that he will act correctly.
