I John Ramsay of the County of Alexandria being of sound mind but weak in body do hereby make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament

I leave to my sister Jane ten pounds sterling payable to her annually by my Executor out of my Estate during her life

After all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid my estate personal and real is to be divided equally among my children in the same manner as if I had died intestate. A sum sufficient to answer the beforementioned annuity is however to be set apart and retained by my Executor before a dividend is made I leave my friend Colin Auld my sole Executor and nominate him Guardian of my children who are under age, and who is to act in both capacities without being compelled or required to give security for the faithful performance of the respective Trusts

I enjoin upon him not to let the land adjoining Town to any person whatever for any other purpose than raising grass or hay, for suitable person can be had who will agree to comply with this injunction that the land may be let for the space of ten years such tenant, however may occupy so much thereof as a garden as may be sufficient to raise vegetables for the use of his family
