Thomas G. Seely

Not a copy of the original of the County of Alexandria on the 23rd day of July 1828. The said will & testament of Edward said deceased was proved in due form of law by John Shakes Adam Lynn John G. Mandell Thomas G. Seely who in presence of the undersigned were sworn to be recorded in a Court of the County of the same year. Letters testamentary were granted to John Richards James Douglas the Executors. And on the 20th of the same month & year Letters testamentary were granted to Britannia McPhee the daughter named in said will July 7th 1828. I Ann Maria Paton of the town of Alexandria in the district of Columbia leave this as my will. I devise to my friends Sally Wattles and Mary Gilpin three hundred dollars each, to Ann McNeal one hundred dollars. I devise to my beloved Niece Ann B. Paton Mary Jane Paton and Mellicia Paton children of my brother John B. Paton all of the Estate with the exception of three eight hundred as above all the property of every description I do possess of, equally distributed, I have and share with the exception of the house and lots I live in, which I devise to my dear Ann B. Paton, much more over her portion, under her own disposal to wit all or whatever she may choose, the furniture household & kitchen and all contained inside the house to be sold and the profits divided between her sisters and herself, the house and lots I devise to her over the half, equal her sisters portions. I wish my Executors to place their pains that is my niece in the list, and most advantageous securities, stock Government Bonds or good securities, and not to exceed a year in having it permanently settled my half of my fathers Estate devised to me by will I wish withdrawn and placed as above directed. I appoint Phineas Sumner my Executor of this my will, and humbly supplicate Almighty God that a loved spirit may bear me up, and wish & desire to as might may be acceptable in his sight. I have in witness whereof fixed my hand & seal this July the 7th 1828. Ann M. Paton

I empower my Executors if lawful to manage this according to law as it is written with such freedom as scarcely to read, in witness in my presence as my will by. Mary Gilpin. M. D. Robbins District of Columbia, County of Alexandria Be it remembered that on this 23rd day of December 1828 before me, Alexander Moore Register of Wills for the County of said came Mary Gilpin and Mary D. Robbins the subscribing witnesses to this last will and testament of Ann Maria Paton deceased, and proved the same in due form of law by their affirmations. And on the same day the said will was also proved to be wholly written and signed by the Testator by the affirmation of John B. Paton and the oath of Alfred P. Gilpin three of said letters testamentary were granted to Phineas Sumner the in and by the said will named and appointed, he having taken the affirmation prescribed by law and given and in the penalty of $1000. with Hugh Smith his security.

A. Moore Reg. 1829

In the name of God, Amen: I Dedrick Sheckle of the Town of Alexandria in the district of Columbia being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and annulling all wills & Testaments by me heretofore made & her by directing and ordering all my just debts to be in the first place paid First: Two Brick houses situated on the east side of Fairfax Street adjoining George Smoots on the north and Thomas Repton lot on the south, I give and devise to Thomas Pascoe, during her life; and from and after her death, to her two sons John and Charles and their heirs forever. Second: A Brick house and lot situated on the south side of Prince Street and adjoining Cohen and the Misses Finney, I give and devise to Mary Harmon during her life; and from and after her death to her eldest child. Third: A two story Brick house and lot now occupied by me, and two small houses adjoining which I bought of George Haan I give and devise to Charles Pascoe during his life; and from and after his death, to his sons John and Charles and their heirs forever; and it is hereby understood and it is my will, that the said Charles Pascoe shall not sell or dispose of said property but if he should sell or dispose of same, then my will and intention is, that the same shall descend and go to the Mechanics Relief Society.

Fourth: my Mechanics Bank Stock, amounting to eight hundred and fifteen dollars. I dispose of in the following manner: the interest arising from one half I bequeath to the Rev of the Methodist Society, and the annual interest of the other half I bequeath to the Mechanics Relief Society. Lastly, I hereby constitute and appoint Charles Pascoe, John D. Harmon, Matthias Snyder, Louis Beale Executors of this my last will and Testament. In Testimony whereof the said Dedrick Sheckle have hereunto put my hands and seal this fifth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine.
