

In the name of God, Amely I Nicholas Hingston of the County of Alexandria and District of Columbia being weak in body but of sound mind and disposing memory, for which I thank God and calling to mind the uncertainty of life and being desirous to dispose of all worldly Estates, I give and bequeath to the same, in manner following. That is to say, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Jane Hingston immediately after my decease, all my estates real personal or mixed wherever it may be found, both in this District or County of Fairfax or elsewhere, to herself, her heirs or assigns forever to possess and enjoy the whole free from all and to her for ever. After paying my just debts and funeral expenses.

It is my express wish and desire that my Exors, Adors, and assigns hereafter named, be permitted and allowed to qualify, as my Exors, Adors, without giving any security whatever. And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my present wife Jane Hingston, my executrix of this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all other former wills and Testaments by me heretofore made by me. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this Eleventh day of October, eighteen hundred and twenty seven.

Signed, sealed, published and delivered as and for the last will and Testament of the above named Nicholas Hingston in presence of Mary Wilson.

Attest and signed before me
this 15th of Oct^r 1827.
