

In the Name of God Amen I Caleb Brady of Alexandria County & District of Columbia Being weak in body but of sound mind do Make and ordain This my last will and Testament. Removing all others heretofore made first I give and Commit my soul to God who gave it. I am I give and bequeath unto my son James Brady my horse saddle and bridle. I am I give to my son Caleb Brady my watch and wearing apparel. I am I give and bequeath unto my daughter Julia Ann Brady my household and kitchen furniture and Two cows; it is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid; the debts due me by General Volun Mason and all other debts due me to be collected and the money to be equally divided among all my Children Nancy Johnston, Elizabeth Pugerway, Caleb Brady, James Brady, Julia Ann Brady, and lastly I do hereby appoint my son James Brady Executor to this my last Will and testament whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed my seal Signed and acknowledged in Presence of

Samuel Shreve
 James S. Scot.
 Henry Moore

this fifteenth October 1823 Caleb ^{his} x Brady
 mark

Know all Men by these presents that We James Brady Jacob Payne and John Donaldson are held and firmly bound unto Robert Young Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court of Alexandria County in the District of Columbia and his successors in office in the sum of one thousand Dollars lawful money of the United States to the payment whereof well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this Eleventh day of November 1823 The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound James Brady shall well and truly perform the office of Executor of Caleb Brady late of Alexandria County deceased according to law and shall in all respects discharge the duty of him required by law as Executor aforesaid without any injury or damage to any person interested in the faithful performance of said office then the above obligation to be void else remain in full force and virtue in law

Sealed & Delivered } In Presence of } the Court }

James Brady
 Jacob Payne
 John Donaldson

I Pompey Pohna Harris of Alexandria in the District of Columbia being at this ^{time} weak of body but of sound and disposing mind and memory considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous to settle my Worldly affairs as I wish them to be when it shall please providence to call me from this World do hereof make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say. First I desire that my body may be decently buried and after my funeral expenses are paid it is my will and desire that my just debts be paid (if any there be against me) may be first paid out of such money belonging to me