

328
In the name of God, Amen, I Catharine Tillet of the Town and County of Alexandria and District of Columbia being sound in mind and memory, but in a low state of health and being fully impressed with the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and believing it necessary to arrange, as far as in my power lies, all my worldly concerns, do hereby make, publish and declare the following, to be my last will and testament. That is to say, I wish to return my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the dust, from whence it came, to be decently buried at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named. And after the payment of all my just debts, and funeral charges, I will and bequeath, unto my well beloved mother Susannah Slye, all my property of every kind and description real personal and mixed, which I am now in possession of, or may in any way be entitled to, whenever the same may be found, for her use and to be at her disposal for ever, as she may think proper. And I do hereby constitute and appoint my said mother Susannah Slye to be my sole Executor, to carry into full effect this my last will and Testament hereby revoking, annulling and declaring void, all other former wills made by me, and hereby ratifying and confirming this as my last will and testament. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this fifth day of October 1819

District of Columbia 1st

Be it remembered that on this 28th day of October 1819 before me Alexander Moore Register of Wills for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, came Ezra Lunt and J. H. Brodus two of the subscribing witnesses to the within last will and Testament of Catharine Tillet deceased and proved the same in due form of law, and on the same day Susannah Slye the Executor named in said will qualified thereto and gave bond and security according
