

District of Columbia

Be it remembered that on this twenty eighth day of April 1821 before me Alexander Moore Register of Wills for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia came John W. Robinson and John Roach two of the subscribing witnesses to the last will and Testament of Nancy Rickless deceased and proved the same in due form of law.

Alex. Moore
Reg. Wills

Know all Men by these presents that I Saml Benson for and in consideration of the sum of Ten dollars to me in hand paid by my Brother John Thomas Ricklets. The receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged confessing myself paid and satisfied and for divers other considerations and causes here by these presents given granted sold and confirmed to my said Brother my three slaves, Patty aged about forty five years with her daughter Hannah aged about fifteen years also her daughter Nancy aged about eight years. The said slaves to be held & owned by my said Brother and May his wife during their natural lives or to either of them that may out live me that is to say for the following purposes and for no other purpose.

To wit That my said Brother at any date after my demise if he see proper may manumit and discharge my said slave Patty and her two described children Hannah and Nancy, each a either of them as they arrive at Twenty five years of age. Otherwise that he may or shall give up the said slaves to my Brother David Ricklets at any date he may. Brother John Thomas Ricklets see proper to do so and for my Brother David to act by us provided in the first place for my Brother John Thomas. That they or either of them shall not at any rate be sold or disposed of in any shape out of our own Family when I am satisfactorily convinced they will be well provided for and treated with humanity and should the said slaves or either of them or their offspring live after the demise of my said Two Brothers, then and in that case they shall descend to my nephew John Thomas Ricklets & subject to the same regulations as first made and provided with my Two Brothers. That neither of the said slaves or their offspring, offspring shall be sold out of the Family as slaves nor even as servants for a few years and should any sale of the kind be made the same shall be a complete act of Manumission to the said slaves including the offspring and posterity so sold and disposed.

In testimony whereof I Saml Benson the donor or Giver have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal, and also that John Thomas Ricklets the Contractor in like manner has hereunto affixed his hand & seal done this sixteenth day of November in the year of our Lord 1820
