In the name of God, Amen, I Daniel McLean sugar refiner, of the Town of Alexandria & District of Columbia, calling to mind the frailty & uncertainty of human life, do hereby make this my last will & testament now while it pleases God to bestow upon me a sound & disposing mind & memory.

I first commit my body to the ground to be interred by the side of my dear departed wife, desiring & directing that my funeral may be conducted in a plain manner without parade or unnecessary expense, above all I commend my soul to my Creator & Redeemer, depending on his infinite mercy through Jesus Christ our Lord for the pardon of all my sins & infirmities & for acceptance with him in the day of judgement.

As respects my worldly goods, it is my will and direction, that my property of every description, real, personal or mixed, should be sold whomever my executors & trustees hereinafter named shall think it advisable to sell, having regard to the probable future advance of the value of property. The proceeds of all the said property I give & bequeath to all my children, to be divided among them in equal proportions, subject however to the modifications & reservations that herein follow. Whereas my son Daniel is disabled by infirmity from active employment, I give & bequeath to him one fourth part more than any of the rest of my children. And, whereas my son Samuel has already received advances of money for which he stands charged on my books, it is my will & direction that the amount then charged shall be considered as part of his legacy, & deducted from his share devised him as above in common with the rest. It is my will & direction that the sum of one hundred & twenty dollars be allowed, annually, for the comfortable support of my mother during her life, to those who have the charge of her, should they require this compensation. My pew in St. Pauls Church I give & bequeath to my two eldest daughters, to be held by them as long as they continue bona fide members of the congregation of said Church, & in default thereof, to descend to the two next eldest upon the same conditions.

Whereas I purchased & paid for a lot of ground now occupied as a burial ground, the title of which is now in me, it is my will & direction, that, as soon as my estate is reimbursed for the balance due me on account of the said lot, my executors & trustees shall convey in full & sufficient title, the said lot to the ministers & vestry of St. Pauls Church of Alexandria, & their successors for the use of said Church.

I hereby appoint & constitute my truly & well beloved friends John Hoof Cashier of the Farmers Bank of Alexandria & Norman Fitzugh & Jacob Douglass, grocers of the same place, trustees & executors to the provisions of this will. ~~It is my will & direction~~ And I hereby empower & authorize them to dispose of, sell, convey & give full & sufficient title, for and any & all & every of my real estate, that they may dispose of & sell agreeably to the provisions of this will. It is my will & direction further, that the legacies shall be paid over to my children as far as the apportionments herein allow, as they severally arrive at age, and that until the payment thereof proceeds of each ones share be invested in safe & productive stock under the direction & control of the executors & trustees above named, who are constituted the trustees of this fund, & who are required to pay the interest, annually of each child's proportion thus invested, for their several benefits until they come of age & then to pay over the principal as above directed.

I do hereby declare & publish this as my last will & testament, hereby revoking all others that may have been made by me. Given under my hand & seal, this twenty first day of January, in the year of our Lord, Eighteen hundred & twenty two.
