

David Lupton Junr of the County of Alexandria and District of Columbia, being weak in body, but of sound disposing mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament, hereby annulling and revoking all others by me heretofore made.

First I will order and direct that all my Real Estate of which I may be possessed at the time of my decease, both in the District of Columbia and in the State of Virginia or elsewhere, shall be sold Together with my personal estate, including household goods and furniture of what kind soever, and the proceeds thereof so far as may be necessary to be applied to the discharge of my just debts as well in my own name as in the name of Abijah Tanney and company in which I am one third concerned.

Item I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy whatever sum may remain after the discharge of all my just Debts as before mentioned depending upon my Father David Lupton to provide for my Dear children in consequence of my never having received a Title from him to the Land whereon I first settled in Frederick County adjoining his home place.

Lastly I constitute and appoint my beloved wife Nancy Executrix and my Father David Lupton, my Father in law John McPherson and my brother in law Phineas Tanney Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I do authorize and empower them or such or so many of them as shall take letters Testamentary and the survivors or survivor of them to make all such deeds, conveyances and assurances in the Law as shall be necessary to convey to the purchaser or purchasers of all and every part of my real Estate a good and perfect Estate of inheritance in fee simple of and in the Law.
