Know all men by these presents that Mr John S. Cartwright and George Nugent are held and firmly bound to George Gilpin Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court for the county of Alexandria in the district of Columbia and his successors in office in the sum of Two hundred dollars, to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Judge and his successors in Office we bind ourselves our heirs Executors and Administrators jointly and severally by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this 12th day of March 1811. The Condition of the above obligation is, that if the said John S. Cartwright administrator of the Goods, chattels and credits of Obadiah Gamble deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of him the said John S. Cartwright or in the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him, and the same so made do exhibit unto the said Orphan Court when he shall be thereunto required by the said Court. And such goods chattels and credits do sell and truly administer according to law; and further do make a just and true account of all his doings and dealings therein when he shall be thereunto required by the said Court; and all the rest of the said goods chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon account of the said administration the same being first examined and allowed by the Judge of the said Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively as are entitled to the same by law. And if it shall hereafter appear that any last will and testament was made by the deceased and the same be proved in court and the Executor obtain a certificate of the probate thereof and the said John S. Cartwright do not ^{require} such will be read and deliver up his letters of Administration. Then this obligation to be void else to remain in full force. John S. Cartwright
