

June the 29th 1821 Alexander Seffe Henderson take my pen in hand to write my last will and testimony in the sight of god and man. - My wife Rachel Henderson I gave this house and lot to her as long as she lives and the said Rachel Henderson shall pay to Mr Hopwood estate 15 dollars every year and when it please god to call Rachel Henderson to himself and she die then I gave this house and lot to Mimmy Wheeler and her heirs forever and she must pay to Mr Hopwood estate fifteen dollars every year the the reason I give these houses to Mimmy Wheeler is because when my wife Rachel was sick and I myself was sick both of us for three or four months Mimmy Bales waited on us both night and day and I never shall able to make her a sick person therefore I bequeath these houses and lot to her at Rachel death. I expect at my death Rachel will go up in Frederick County where she came from and if she go up then Mimmy Wheeler shall pay Rachel fourteen dollars a year and send the money safe to her as long as she live Mimmy or Mimmy's Cars or assigns and when Rachel Henderson is dead all is yours ^{and your car Mimmy Wheeler} my hand and seal
