

Elizabeth Robinson widow of Matthew Robinson, late of Alexandria, do make this my last will and Testament.
First - I direct that the two coloured children Ellen and Louisa formerly the property of my deceased husband, shall be purchased and emancipated by my executor hereinafter named, and that Margaret Ben and Mary also part of my deceased husband's estate, be purchased and emancipated, and to that end I authorize my said Executor to apply so much of my estate as in his judgment may appear reasonable.

Secondly - I devise to William Keating son of Martha Keating, four hundred dollars on condition that he shall enter into trade or Co-partnership with William Robinson.

Thirdly - I devise one hundred dollars to be applied to the religious education of Martha Maysey in the Catholic institution at George Town and to no other purpose.

Fourthly - I devise to the Reverend Francis Keale, two hundred dollars, one hundred dollars of which are to be applied to procuring Maysey to be said for the repose of the soul of my deceased husband, and one hundred to procure masses to be said for the repose of my own soul.

Fifthly - I devise to Polly Baggett and to Matilda Baggett fifty dollars to each.

Sixthly - I devise to the Rev^d Francis Keale, four hundred dollars to be appropriated at his discretion for the relief of the poor.

Seventhly - I devise to William Robinson son of my deceased husband four hundred dollars.

Lastly - If any thing remain after fulfilling the devised before made - then I give and devise the same to the Reverend Francis Keale to be applied at his discretion to the use of the poor. And I do hereby constitute the Reverend Francis Keale above named the sole Executor of this my will - In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand this 17th January 1829.

Elizabeth Robinson

Acknowledged by the Testatrix as her last will in our presence, who in her presence have hereto set our hands in attestation thereof.

H. J. Taylor.

Martha Keating

Consent to the foregoing will.

I give to Julia Kerr one hundred Dollars - And to Sarah Charles one hundred dollars. To the Rev^d Mr Fairclough two hundred dollars.

one hundred of which is for masses for the repose of my own soul and one hundred for the repose of the souls of my father mother brothers and sisters. I devise to Elizabeth Murray daughter of my deceased husband all my silver plate.

Elizabeth Robinson

Published by the Testatrix as a Codicil to her last will this 18th January 1829 in presence of R. P. Taylor.

Second Codicil - I devise to Mrs Hotelford wife of Bartholomew Hotelford one hundred dollars to purchase a mourning ring - Witnessed in presence of

Elizabeth Robinson

Jan^y 18. 1829.

Third Codicil made Jan^y 20th 1829 - I hereby revoke the legacy given to Elizabeth Murray sister.

Elizabeth Robinson

H. J. Taylor.

At a Session of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia the 22nd day of January 1829 - this last will and Testament of Elizabeth Robinson dec^d and the Codicils thereto were proved in due form of law by Robert J. Taylor, witness to the same and ordered to be recorded. And at a Court the 4th day of February 1829, the Rev^d Francis Keale, the Executor named in said will renounced his appointment. And at a Court the 12th day of February in the same year orders of Administration with the will annexed were granted to William J. Keitt, he having given bond and sworn accordingly to law.

Teste - A. Moore.

Reg^d wills.

In the name of God Amen. - I William Reynolds of the Town of Alexandria in the District of Columbia do make this my last will and Testament in manner and form following, recalling all former every will made by me heretofore.

I give to my daughter Elizabeth Johnston and her heirs forever, a lot of ground on the west side of Fairfax Street purchased by me of Richard Wall and also a lot of ground on the West side of the same street purchased from Mary Bennett. I give to my son William the several lots of ground on the East side of Fairfax Street which were purchased by me from William Bush to hold to him and his heirs forever, except the lot north of my present residence on which Dray Cadwell has built, which I do give to my son Joel and his heirs forever. I give to my two sons William and Joel and their heirs forever the ground purchased by me from Thomas Herbert.