In the name of God Amen. I George A Thornton Physician of the Town and County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia being perfectly sound in mind and of good discretion, although afflicted with a disease of doubtful issue, do make and declare the following to be my last will and Testament, revoking all others. In the first place I commit my soul to my creator, relying on his mercy through Jesus Christ for an happy immortality. And my body, to be interred according to the discretion of my surviving friends in a plain manner. My Estate real and personal with the exception hereinafter to be mentioned, I wish to be disposed of to my dear wife and Children according to the provisions of the law as it now exists in the commonwealth of Virginia. The land which I have recently purchased in the neighborhood of Alexandria I wish to be sold, and for that purpose I commit it to my brother, Stewart G Thornton to be divided into such parts or parcels and sold at such time and upon such terms as he shall think most for the Interest of my heirs. The personal property upon the said premises and also what may remain at my present residence in Town I commit in like manner to my said Brother Stewart G Thornton, reserving to my beloved wife Frances G Thornton the privilege of retaining and removing whatever of the furniture, servants or moveables of any kind whatever that she may desire. And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my friends and kinsmen Asalett Adams of the County of Culpepper, George Washington Thornton of the same County, and Stewart G Thornton of Washington City in the District of Columbia executors of this my last will and Testament, revoking all other wills by me heretofore made and ratifying and confirming this and none other. And it is also my will that my Children shall be entitled to receive their respective portions of property as they respectively become of age and my daughters to become entitled to receive theirs as they become of age or are married as may first happen. In Testimony whereof I have herunto set my hand and affixed my seal this thirteenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.
