

I have left with Mr James Kennedy of King Street for sale for which he is to have 5 per cent on the sales, One hundred and fifty bottles of Otto of Roses, to be sold at two dollars per bottle. I have an account open with him, when settled and the Otto all sold, I expect there will be two hundred dollars in my favour

I have left with Mr Cary Bronaugh twenty three sets silk shawls to be sold at seven dollars each, and three cases of Hats to be sold at six dollars each hat, each case containing twenty five hats he is to have 5 per cent on the sales

I have in care of Hats with Mr P. G. Munstler containing twenty five hats, at six dollars each; he is to have 5 per cent on the sales

Should the above articles sell for the limits the commissions deducted, will be $912.94, the two hundred left by Mr Hopkins, will give $1122.25, your commission on this sum 55 1/2% leaves $639.31, say four hundred out of this for my good daughter Phoebe Hopkins, to be lodged in the Bank of Alexandria, leaves $239.31 One half of which $119.65 to be paid the Washington School Society, to aid the instruction and clothing the boys and girls, the other half to be paid to the vestry of Christ Church of Alexandria for the purpose of aiding in building the steeple and raising the bell of the said Church, should any of the above sums fall short, take a proportion from each

Your attention to this, will much oblige for your obedient and humble servant
James Crowthill

District of Columbia 1st

Be it remembered that on this 31st day of July 1820 before me Alexander Moor register of wills for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia, came William Nelson and William Hodgson and made oath upon the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that the within instrument of writing purporting to be the will and Testament of James Crowthill deceased, is wholly written and signed by the testator
