At a Session of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia the 23rd day of November 1811. the parties do hereby acknowledge the same to be their act and deed and do hereby bind themselves and their heirs Executors and Administrators to the same.

I John Butcher of the Town of Alexandria in the District of Columbia do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following. That is to say
Inprimis It is my will and desire and I do order and direct that all my just debts be satisfied and paid

Whereas I am connected with William Paton in the hard ware Store in the Stock of which I may possibly hold more than he does at this time, in case it should turn out so, that perhaps whatever it may be I give and devise to my wife Ann to dispose of as she may judge proper in case she shall survive me. I am also concerned with Ezra Sinscy and Company in the tan yard and stock therein in which stock we includes all the Lotts and buildings & cth in the business of tanning. now I give and devise unto my said wife Ann during her life whatever profits may arise from my stock in the hard ware Store and in the tan yard, but if my Nephew Jonathan Butcher should incline to take immediately into his business that portion of those Stocks which I intend for him after the death of my wife then it is my will and desire and I do order and direct that so much of the Stock in the hard ware Store as shall be found equal to the stock which <sup>William</sup> Paton holds in that Store and my part of the Stock in the tan yard be valued by competent Judges which Stock I give to my said Nephew Jonathan Butcher or his Executors Administrators immediately upon my death he paying unto my said wife during her life an Interest of four per Cent in quarters yearly ~~which~~ <sup>which</sup> accrues upon the amount of the valuation so made but if my said Nephew shall not incline to take the above described Stocks upon those terms then I give and devise the same unto my said wife Ann during her life and after her death I give and devise them unto my said Nephew Jonathan Butcher his Executors Administrators and Assigns

Item I give and devise unto my said wife Ann during her life all the rents arising from
