Know all men by these presents that we Jeremiah Nutt Monk Butts and Eliza G. Dick are held and firmly bound unto Robert Young Esquire Judge of the Orphans Court for the County of Alexandria in the District of Columbia and his successors in Office in the sum of ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Judge and his successors in Office we bind ourselves our heirs Executors and Administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated the 27th day of September 1814.

The condition of the above obligation is that if the said Jeremiah Nutt Administrator his of the goods Chattels and Credits of James Nutt deceased do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods chattels and Credits of the said deceased which have or shall come to the hands of his executors or to the hands of his personal Administrator in the hands and possession of any other person or persons for her and the same to make do exhibit unto the said Orphans Court when she shall be therewith required by the said Court and such goods Chattels and Credits do well and truly administer according to Law and further do make a just and true account of all her actions and deings therein when thereto required by the said Court and all the rest of the said goods Chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon account of the said Administrator the same being first examined and allowed by the judge of the said Court for the time being shall deliver and pay unto such persons respectively as are entitled to the same by Law, and if it shall hereafter appear that any last Will and testament was made by the deceased and the same be proved in Court, and the Executor obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Jeremiah do in such case being required render and deliver up her Letters of Administration, then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.
