Reg. Wills

In the name of God amen I Jeremiah A. Keale of Alexandria in the District of Columbia being in good health of body and of sound and disposing mind and memory praised be God first and being desirous to settle my world by affairs do make and publish this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills made by me First I give my soul to God who made it, and my body to be buried at the discretion of my Executors herein after named, as to my worldly Estate I dispose of in the following manner.

Imprimis I give unto my dear beloved wife the use of all my Estate personal and real in the State of Maryland and this place in the district of Columbia and town of Alexandria during her single life, but if any of my Daughters should marry during my wife's single life, then in that case, I desire my dear Wife to give them such a part as she can spare without hurting the other girls, and hereafter

Witnessing the Estate.

Imprimis I give to my son James Neale my gold watch and my wearing apparel, he being already provided for and no more.

Imprimis I give and bequeath unto my three daughters Jane Neale Ann ^{Eliza} Neale and Mary Carlin Neale all my Estate both personal and real; (in the state of Maryland and the District of Columbia, Town and County of Alexandria) to be equally divided between them all, to them and their heirs forever. I hereby appoint my Dear Wife sole executrix of this my last Will and Testament, In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of July in the year of our Lord 1812.

I hereby desire the intention of my Will shall be determined by three disinterested men, unfettered by law if there is any dispute or disagreement concerning the same or any intention and according to justice as witness my hand and seal as above dated.
